Dear Friends,

Welcome to our Special Needs Awareness Day! We are delighted that you came and hope you are able to learn about the services available to help you and your family.

The exhibitors who have joined us today will be able to offer information on issues relating to your health and wellness, support services, and programs provided by federal, state, and local governments.

This Guide of Exhibitors was assembled for you to use today, and in the future should you need to contact any of the organizations for further assistance. Every attempt was made to make this guide as complete as possible, but there may be exhibitors here that are not listed so we urge you to pick up materials from every table.

We would like to thank Good Shepherd Rehabilitation Hospital and Lehigh Valley Health Network for being our corporate sponsors, and also The Ben Event for being our host.
