

In the near future, I will be introducing a series of bills to provide much-needed tax relief for Pennsylvanians and their families during these difficult inflationary times.

This bill will provide a permanent exclusion from the Gross Receipts Tax for residential electric consumers.

Please join me in cosponsoring this legislation to provide tax relief for Pennsylvanians and their families.