

In the near future, I will be introducing a series of bills to provide much-needed tax relief for Pennsylvanians and their families during these difficult inflationary times.

My legislation will provide a permanent exclusion from the Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax for pet food to help families reduce costs for their pets.

Please join me in cosponsoring this legislation to provide tax relief for Pennsylvanians and their families.